THOMSON REUTERS

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Patent Databases – 2009 Price List and Terms of Agreement

Please Note

This price list covers the patents databases listed. For other Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases, please refer to the online price displays.

Prices and print/display formats are subject to change. Please check the online price displays on Dialog, Questel and STN.

Online access

Access to some Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases is provided under a two-tiered pricing structure:

- Preferential rates: discounted rates for eligible Thomson Reuters (Scientific) subscribers.
- Standard rates: for all other online customers.

Some databases and some database indexing systems are only available to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) subscribers.

For further information about subscriptions and access to indexing on Derwent World Patents Index, please refer to page 16.

Terms of use

The Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Databases Terms of Agreement enable organisations to distribute the results of online searches or to store the data in corporate databases without the risk of infringing intellectual property rights. Redistribution and Archive Licences can be purchased to ensure that all activities comply with copyright law.

The Terms of Agreement apply to all Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases on all hosts. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) also participates in the copyright compliance scheme ERA on Dialog and Keep & Share on STN. They can be used as an alternative to the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Licences.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Databases Terms of Agreement - 2009

Use of the online databases produced by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and all data obtained from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases is subject to the following Terms and Conditions of use (hereinafter "Terms"). Any other use of the data without the express written permission of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) is strictly prohibited.

These Terms are effective from January 1st 2009 and are subject to change at any time upon publication of the change by Thomson Reuters (Scientific).

The following Terms apply to all forms of copying, distribution and archival (electronic, printed etc.) from any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database online. If a customer wishes to use, copy or store the data in a way which is not permitted under these conditions, then they are advised to contact Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and obtain prior written consent.

The Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases and the information contained in them ("Information") may be used by End Users and Search Brokers as defined in this document. Terms in Sections 1 apply to End Users, in Section 2 to Search Brokers and in Section 3 to ALL users.

Licence agreements for archival and redistribution of data beyond a project group are available and copies of the Licences can be obtained from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Customer Services.

Authority

Access to and use of the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases is subject to the following Terms between You and the company, partnership or entity, if any, with which You are affiliated (hereafter referred to as "You" or "Your") and Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Limited ("Thomson Reuters (Scientific)"). By accessing one of the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases, You agree that You have the authority to enter into the Terms and that You have read the Terms, understood them and agree to be bound by them. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right to disallow any specific usage that in Thomson Reuters (Scientific) estimation exceeds what is intended under these Terms.

Terms and Conditions

The following Terms apply to all forms of use and distribution (electronic, printed etc.) from any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database when accessed through commercial host vendors. Information from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases is available to You as intellectual property copyrighted by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and subject to the provisions of international copyright conventions and other intellectual property laws. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) owns all right, title and interest, including copyright in all Information and retains all rights in providing Information to You. Except as expressly provided herein, You shall not use, publish, transmit, redistribute or otherwise reproduce (including, without limitation, translate) information from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases.

Section 1 : Terms which apply to End Users

- i. You are an 'End-User' if You are obtaining or receiving the Information a) for Your own use if You are an individual or b) for the use of someone within Your company or business if You are a business. You are not an End-User if You fit into any of the following categories: a consultant accessing information on behalf of a client; a librarian accessing Information on behalf of a patron not employed within the librarian's company; or any other Search Broker or Reseller of information, accessing Information to provide to a client. (The above list is not meant to be all inclusive). End Users may still access Information subject to the special terms and conditions applicable to Search Brokers if You are operating as a Search Broker.
- ii. All Information provided to You by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) (whether through intermediate online host vendors, Search Broker services, in-house databases etc.) is licenced for Your exclusive use. You may not provide the Information in whole or in part to any third party. You may use and copy Information and keep the Information for as long as You require if it is for Your personal use. You may make up to 25 copies of the Information for distribution to a Project Group within Your company or business. A Project Group is defined as a group of up to 25 individuals comprising a dedicated team researching or developing a specific product or process, within a definite timeframe, that requires or uses Thomson Scientific data. You may make additional copies of Information for distribution to others outside Your organization for the purposes of representing or advising Your organization during litigation. You, or others within Your organization to whom You have distributed Information, may store up to 5,000 records per year within an individual's private archive or in a Project Group's private archive (see definition of Project Group above). You may retain the Information indefinitely within the company files with the following exceptions: You may not store the Information or any copy thereof beyond the limits permitted by the Terms, in an electronically searchable database for longer than 3 months unless You obtain a Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Archival Licence.
- iii. A Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Redistribution or Archival Licence is required for distribution, storage and archival beyond the limits of these Terms. If you use the DIALOG Electronic Redistribution and Archive program (ERA) or STN Keep and Share Program, you may make and distribute within Your company or archive for internal use, the number of copies permitted thereby with the following exceptions:
 - a. You may not redistribute, electronically store (archive) all or a majority of records for any given year or for Single Country Patent Information.
 - b. You may not electronically store (archive) in machine readable form for more than twelve (12) months, Information retrieved from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases under the DIALOG or STN Archival feature.
 - c. You may not delete or remove from Information the copyright credits or the name of the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database from which such records or data was retrieved.
 - d. You may not electronically store in machine readable form for longer than three (3) months Information retrieved for internal redistribution under the DIALOG or STN redistribution feature (non archival storage).
 - e. You must include Thomson Reuters (Scientific) copyright notice conspicuously with each set of results which You distribute to others:

Copyright (Year) Thomson Reuters (use the current year).

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Patent Databases – 2009 Price List and Terms of Agreement

Section 2 : Terms which apply to Search Brokers

- i. A "Search Broker" means a person, business or entity who is accessing Information on behalf of another company; another entity; or an individual not employed by the Search Broker. Search Brokers can include (but are not limited to) the following: Information brokers; patent search bureaus; librarians and libraries; consultants; patent attorneys and agents; research firms. Agents and other commercial redistributors (e.g. host vendors) are not considered Search Brokers and therefore may not access the Information under these terms of Agreement.
- ii. Each time You access Information You will be acting on behalf of a single customer who is an End User (see definition in Section 1). You may provide one copy of such Information to Your customer who has engaged You to conduct a specific search, provided that You place Thomson Reuters (Scientific) copyright notice on the material. You may retain the Information for a maximum period of 3 months for the purpose of editing or reformatting the search results. A referral copy of the Information may be retained indefinitely within Your company files or for back up purposes. You may not provide the same Information to another customer without replicating the search online. Your customer may subsequently use the Information according to the provisions of Sections 1 and 3 hereof. You agree that You will follow the procedures specified in these Terms. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right to terminate this agreement immediately if You misrepresent the usage of information to Thomson Reuters (Scientific).
- iii. You are not entitled to discounted access to the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases online, when acting as a Search Broker except: You may access Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases at a discounted rate where You are employed by an organization which falls under the aforementioned category of End User, as part of an outsourcing agreement whereby You are using the End User's authorized online ID to perform online searches on their behalf.
- iv. You will not provide Information to any person, company or entity You know or have reason to believe will misrepresent, republish, resell, re-licence or reproduce (including, without limitation, translate) the Information or will use the Information to engage in unfair or deceptive practices.
- v. You may sort the Information, edit it, reformat it, record it electronically and combine it with other information so long as You are acting with respect to a specific order prepared for one End User. You may not otherwise merge the Information with information from other sources or alter the Information to create the whole or any portion of a mailing list, telemarketing list, other marketing or research aid or other data compilation sold or licenced by You to a third party.
- vi. In the case of suspected infringement by one or more of Your customers, You agree (subject to not contravening confidentiality agreements with Your customers) to provide confirmation to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) that You have provided Information to that customer. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) will have the right to prohibit You from servicing any End Users upon notice to You. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) will, upon request from You, provide You with a supply of Terms which You may pass to Your customers.
- vii. You acknowledge that You are acting under this Agreement as an independent contractor and shall not incur any obligation or liability in the name of Thomson Reuters (Scientific). Nothing contained herein shall be construed in any manner as appointing You or any of Your employees or associates as an agent or employee of Thomson Reuters (Scientific).

- viii. When You make copies of the Information, You must include the following notice:
Copyright (Year) Thomson Reuters (use the current year)

Section 3 : Terms which apply to both End Users and Search Brokers

- i. You acknowledge that the amount You pay to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) (via online host vendors) for the Information received from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) will in most instances represent a small portion of Your overall cost of the project, task or function for which the Information will be used. You also acknowledge that the type of Information to be provided by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) (through the online host vendors) and provided to You may contain a degree of error. Finally, You acknowledge that the risk of any loss or injury which might be incurred by You (and/or Your customer in the case of a Search Broker) in reliance upon the Information will be borne by You (and/or Your customer in the case of a Search Broker). For these reasons, You agree that You are responsible for determining that all Information provided by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) to You is sufficiently accurate for Your purposes. Neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor the online host vendors makes any representation or warranties of any kind with respect to the Information, including, but not limited to, its correctness, completeness, currentness, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or with respect to the media on which the Information is provided and neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) (nor the online host vendors) shall be liable for any loss, injury or death arising out of or caused, in whole or in part, by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) (or the online host vendors) negligent acts or omissions in reporting, communicating or delivering the Information, directly or indirectly, to You.
- ii. You agree that neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor the online host vendors will be liable for consequential damages, even if advised of the possibility of such claims by users of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Information.
- iii. If, notwithstanding paragraphs i and ii above, liability can be imposed on Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and /or the online host vendors, then You agree that Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and the online host vendors' aggregate liability, if any, for any and all losses, injuries or death to You (and/or Your customer in the case of a Search Broker) arising out of any acts or omissions of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and/or the online vendors in connection with anything to be done or furnished hereunder, regardless of the cause of the loss, injury or death (including negligence) and regardless of the nature of the legal or equitable right claimed to have been violated, shall never exceed the amount paid by You for the services furnished hereunder during the previous 12 month period or $5,000, whichever is greater, and You covenant and promise that You will not sue Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and/or the online host vendors for any greater than such sum and that You will not seek punitive damages in any way against Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and/or the online host vendors.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Patent Databases – 2009 Price List and Terms of Agreement

- iv. You acknowledge that the Information licenced by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) hereunder, regardless of format or form, is proprietary to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and comprises:
 - a. works of original authorship, including compiled information containing Thomson Reuters (Scientific) selection, arrangement and co-ordination and expression of such information or pre-existing material it has created, gathered or assembled;
 - b. confidential and trade secret information;
 - c. information that has been created, developed and maintained by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) at great expense of time and money such that misappropriation or unauthorized use by others for commercial gain would unfairly and irreparably harm Thomson Reuters (Scientific).
- v. You agree that You will not commit or permit any act or omission by Your agents, employees or any third party which would impair Thomson Reuters (Scientific) proprietary and intellectual property rights in the information.
- vi. You understand that You are the beneficiary of a contract between Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and or the online host vendors and that, under that contract, both Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and the online host vendors have reserved certain rights which may result in the termination of Your right to receive Information from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) In addition, Thomson Reuters (Scientific) may terminate this Agreement at any time if You breach any of its terms.
- vii. These Terms are subject to change at any time by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and are in addition to those found in the online host vendors' customer agreements. If there is a conflict between these Terms and the online host vendors' terms of agreement, then these Terms will apply. These Terms shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law.

Section 4 : Licences for End Users

For redistribution and archival beyond the terms and conditions specified herein, You will require a Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Redistribution Licence and/or a Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Archival Licence. Please contact Your local Thomson Reuters (Scientific) office if You wish to obtain an official Licence.

- i. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Redistribution Licence
If You are performing SDIs, Alerts, Profiles or searches online or using an in-house archive and distributing the results to a Project Group of more than 25 persons or to individuals who do not comprise a Project Group, You will require a Redistribution Licence. Note: certain authorized users may be covered for broader redistribution as part of their 2004 Subscription arrangement.
- ii. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Archival Licence
Archival within an individual's private database or within a Project Group's database is permitted to the limit of 5,000 records per year. For archival and storage in a searchable electronic database system beyond the Terms of this agreement You will require an Archival Licence.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Redistribution Licence

Section 1: Grant and Redistribution

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Limited ("Thomson Reuters (Scientific)") hereby grants to: _____ ("Licencee")

the non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited right, for the term specified below, to make copies of individual records obtained from the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database ("Information") listed in Section 2 and to store the data in an electronically searchable database for the purposes of editing or reformatting the results for a period not to exceed 3 months ("Redistribution Period") and to redistribute the Information to its employees. Recipients of the Information may retain a referral copy indefinitely and may store a maximum of 5,000 records per year in a private database.

The term 'redistribute' shall mean the supply of Information to individuals not comprising a Project Group or to a Project Group of more than 25 individuals, including but not limited to paper copies, electronic copying, email distribution and downloading onto disc. Under the terms of this Licence, the Licencee may not place the information into an electronic searchable database system. Except as expressly provided herein, the Licencee and its employees shall not use, publish, retransmit, redistribute or otherwise reproduce, (including, without limitation, translate) any Information. In no event shall the Licencee and its employees make any Information available to any third party, except to Recognised Regulatory Agencies (e.g. FDA) or to Legal Parties (e.g. Patent Lawyers) who may be representing the Licencee, as appropriate in the normal activities to the Licencee. All copyright credits that appear in the Selected Database shall be retained in all information redistributed from such databases. The Information is licenced to the Licencee under the terms of this Licence together with the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Databases Terms of Agreement. The Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Databases Terms of Agreement are expressly incorporated within this Licence. The Licencee understands and acknowledges the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right to modify the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Databases Terms of Agreement at any time.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Patent Databases – 2009 Price List and Terms of Agreement

Section 5: Annual redistribution fee and payment

The total annual Redistribution Fee is specified in Section 4. In consideration of the Licence granted by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) hereunder, the Licensees shall pay Thomson Reuters (Scientific) the fees as specified in Section 4. All fees will be invoiced and due payable within 30 days of date of invoice. All fees, plus any applicable state or local taxes shall be remitted to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) within 30 days of the invoice date.

Section 6: Term and termination

The Term of this Licence shall commence as of the date of execution of this Licence and will continue to be effective through to the 31st of December of the current calendar year. This Licence will continually renew on a calendar year basis by payment of the fees stated on the invoice sent to the Licensee immediately prior to the renewal date of this agreement. This agreement may be terminated by either party for breach of this agreement by the other party upon 60-days prior written notice, provided that if the party receiving such notice shall cure and remedy such breach within such 60-day period, the notice shall be null and void and this agreement shall continue in full force and effect. Upon termination, the Licensee shall delete all Licenced Information from the Licensee's Internal Delivery System within 31 days.

Section 7: Online vendor terms

The Licensee acknowledges that it is bound by the terms and conditions contained in any agreement between the Online Vendor(s) and the Licensee that pertain to the Selected Databases.

Section 8: Proprietary rights

Licensee acknowledges and agrees that the information contained in the databases is proprietary to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) or its data suppliers and that Licensee shall keep such information confidential and not disclose it to others except as otherwise permitted under this agreement, and that all proprietary rights in the database are and shall remain the sole property of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers. The Licensee acknowledges that the databases were compiled, prepared, selected and arranged by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers through the expenditure of substantial time, effort and money and that they constitute a valuable property of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers.

Section 9: Disclaimer of warranties and liability

The databases are provided "as is" without the warranty of any kind. Neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers make any warranty whatsoever as to the accuracy or completeness of any of the databases or the results to be obtained from using the information therein and neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers shall be responsible for any claims attributable to errors, omissions, or other inaccuracies in the information contained in any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database. The entire risk to the results and performance of any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database is assumed by the user of the database. Further, neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers make any representations or warranties either express or implied, with respect to any of the databases, including, but not limited to, the quality, performance, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose of any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database or any information contained therein. In no event shall Thomson Reuters (Scientific) or any of its data suppliers be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database or for any loss or damage of any nature caused to any person as a result of the use of the database, even if advised of the possibility thereof.

Section 10: Indemnification

Licensee agrees to indemnify Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and hold it harmless from all claims and damages, including without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees, arising out of Licensee's use of the database, unless such claims or damages result from the gross negligence of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) in providing the databases, or unless Licensee's authorized use of the databases has given rise to the claims or damages based on the infringement of any copyright or other proprietary right of any third party. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) shall indemnify Licensee and hold it harmless against all claims and damages, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and expenses, which Licensee incurs as a result of any claim against Licensee that the databases infringe any copyright or proprietary right of any third party, provided the: (i) Licensee notified Thomson Reuters (Scientific) promptly in writing of the assertion of such claim; (ii) Thomson Reuters (Scientific) has sole control over the defense or settlement of such claim; and (iii) Licensee's use of the database has been in accordance with this agreement. In the event of a claim for infringement, Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right at its option to terminate this agreement with respect to the allegedly infringing portion of the database.

Section 11: Miscellaneous

- a. This agreement may not be assigned by Licensee without Thomson Reuters (Scientific) prior written consent.
- b. This agreement shall be governed by the laws of England.
- c. This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and may only be amended by written agreement signed by both parties.
- d. This agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts each of which is an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Archival Licence - 2009

Section 1: Grant and Redistribution

This Archival Licence is only for databases to which a maximum of 5,000 records can be added per year. For a database of a larger size, please contact your local Thomson Reuters (Scientific) office for licencing arrangements.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Limited ("Thomson Reuters (Scientific)") hereby grants to: _____ ("Licencee")

the non-exclusive, non-transferable, limited right, for the term specified below, to make searchable to the declared number of searchers, individual records obtained from the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database ("Information") listed in Section 2 and to store the data in an internal electronic database system (the Licencees "Internal Database System") for a period not to exceed the terms or subsequent renewal terms thereof of the agreement ("Archival Term") and to allow search access to the Information in this Internal Database System to its employees. As part of our general online terms of use (terms), You or others within Your organization to whom You have distributed information, may store a maximum of 5,000 records per year within an individual's private archive or in a Project Group's private archive, without requiring this Archival Licence.

The Licencee acknowledges it receives access to the selected databases through the Online Vendor(s) indicated in Section 3. The term "access" shall mean direct searchable access using the Licencee's Internal Database System to the Information obtained from the Selected Database by the number of individuals agreed in this Licence, for the sole purpose of retrieving Information for themselves, including but not limited to paper copies, electronic copying, email distribution and downloading onto disc. For the redistribution beyond the individual performing the search, a Redistribution Licence is required. Except as expressly provided herein, the Licencee and its employees shall not use, publish, retransmit, redistribute or otherwise reproduce (including without limitation, translate) any Information. In no event shall the Licencee and its employees make any Information available to any third party, except to Recognised Regulatory Agencies (e.g. FDA) or to Legal Parties (e.g. Patent Lawyers) who may be representing the Licencee, as appropriate in the normal activities to the Licencee. All copyright credits that appear in the Selected Databases shall be retained in all information redistributed from such databases. The Licence Fee is based upon the number of new or updated records added to the Licencee's Internal Database System during the course of the current Licence year excluding any for previous years. The Information is licenced to the Licencee under the terms of this Agreement together with the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Online Terms of Agreement. The Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Online Terms of Agreement are expressly incorporated within this Licence. The Licencee understands and acknowledges that Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right to modify the Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Online Terms of Agreement at any time.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Patent Databases – 2009 Price List and Terms of Agreement

Section 5: Term and termination

The term of this Licence shall commence as of the date of execution of this Licence. The fees applicable under the licence are intended to cover the number of new or updated records which are added to a searchable in-house database during the course of the current Licence year excluding any records carried over from previous years. This Licence will continue to renew on a calendar year basis by payment of the fees stated on the invoice sent to the Licencee immediately prior to the renewal date of this agreement. This agreement may be terminated by either party for breach of this agreement by the other party upon 60-days prior written notice, provided that if the party receiving such notice shall cure and remedy such breach within such 60-day period, the notice shall be null and void and this agreement shall continue in full force and effect. Upon termination, the Licencee may retain and continue to use the Information obtained under this Licence subject to payment of any relevant Archival fee. The Licencee agrees to be bound by the provisions of use of the Information as covered by this Agreement which by their nature extend beyond the term of the Agreement and shall survive termination of this Agreement

Section 6: Online vendor terms

The Licencee acknowledges that it is bound by the terms and conditions contained in any agreement between the Online Vendor(s) and the Licencee that pertain to the Selected Databases.

Section 7: Proprietary rights

Licencee acknowledges and agrees that the information contained in the databases is proprietary to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) or its data suppliers and that Licencee shall keep such information confidential and not disclose it to others except as otherwise permitted under this agreement, and that all proprietary rights in the database are and shall remain the sole property of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers. The Licencee acknowledges that the databases were compiled, prepared, selected and arranged by Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers through the expenditure of substantial time, effort and money and that they constitute a valuable property of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and its data suppliers.

Section 8: Disclaimer of warranties and liability

The databases are provided “as is” without the warranty of any kind. Neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers make any warranty whatsoever as to the accuracy or completeness of any of the databases or the results to be obtained from using the information therein and neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers shall be responsible for any claims attributable to errors, omissions, or other inaccuracies in the information contained in any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database. The entire risk to the results and performance of any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database is assumed by the user of the database. Further, neither Thomson Reuters (Scientific) nor any of its data suppliers make any representations or warranties either express or implied, with respect to any of the databases, including, but not limited to, the quality, performance, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose of any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database or any information contained therein. In no event shall Thomson Reuters (Scientific) or any of its data suppliers be liable for direct, indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages arising out of the use of or inability to use any Thomson Reuters (Scientific) database or for any loss or damage of any nature caused to any person as a result of the use of the database, even if advised of the possibility thereof.

Section 9: Indemnification

Licencee agrees to indemnify Thomson Reuters (Scientific) and hold it harmless from all claims and damages, including without limitation, reasonable attorney’s fees, arising out of Licencee’s use of the database, unless such claims or damages result from the gross negligence of Thomson Reuters (Scientific) in providing the databases, or unless Licencee’s authorized use of the databases has given rise to the claims or damages based on the infringement of any copyright or other proprietary right of any third party. Thomson Reuters (Scientific) shall indemnify Licencee and hold it harmless against all claims and damages, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney’s fees and expenses, which Licencee incurs as a result of any claim against Licencee that the databases infringe any copyright or proprietary right of any third party, provided the: (i) Licencee notified Thomson Reuters (Scientific) promptly in writing of the assertion of such claim; (ii) Thomson Reuters (Scientific) has sole control over the defense or settlement of such claim; and (iii) Licencee’s use of the database has been in accordance with this agreement. In the event of a claim for infringement, Thomson Reuters (Scientific) reserves the right at its option to terminate this agreement with respect to the allegedly infringing portion of the database and either to substitute another, substantially similar database or to refund to the Licencee pro rata share of any prepaid licence fee

Section 10: Miscellaneous

- This agreement may not be assigned by Licencee without Thomson Reuters (Scientific) prior written consent.
- This agreement shall be governed by the laws of England.
- This agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and may only be amended by written agreement signed by both parties.
- This agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts each of which is an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

Thomson Reuters (Scientific) Subscriber Access

Access to some Thomson Reuters (Scientific) databases is provided under a discounted pricing structure (Preferential Rates) for Thomson Reuters (Scientific) subscribers.

In the case of Derwent World Patents Index, organisations may be entitled to access at a discounted rate where they spend more than a specified amount on the 2009 Core Service product lines.

Please note that the list of Core Service product lines does not include online usage itself or document delivery. In the case of Biotechnology Resource and the Drug File, discounted rates are given to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) subscribers to the respective printed services.

Preferential rates and ID clearance

Eligible organisations are not considered cleared for online access at Preferential Rates until they have received written authorisation from Thomson Reuters (Scientific) confirming clearance.

Additional logon IDs for Preferential Rate users are not automatically cleared for Preferential Rates. To enable clearance, customers must send Thomson Reuters (Scientific) written details of any additional IDs or changes in IDs.

Further information

For further information about Thomson Reuters (Scientific) subscriptions and access conditions, please contact your local Thomson Reuters (Scientific) office.

Access to Indexing

Access to Thomson Reuters (Scientific) indexing is subject to the purchase of the appropriate Core Service product lines (subscription units) or the payment of indexing access fees. In brief, indexing is available as follows:

Derwent World Patents Index

Derwent Chemical Patents Index (Derwent CPI) segment

Chemical Indexing	Sections B, C, E
Polymer Indexing	Sections A, E
Manual Codes	Sections A-M

Manual Codes Access (less than 4 units)

Manual Codes may only be accessed in those sections for which a payment (full subscription) has been made. A full subscription to Section C provides access to chemical indexing and manual codes for that Section.

Manual Codes and Single Section Chemical Indexing Access (4-7.5 units)

Subscribers may access Manual Codes for Sections D and F-N*, and indexing for one of the following options: Sections A and E, or Sections B and E, or Sections C and E.

*N codes are catalyst codes

Full Chemical Indexing Access (8 or more units)

Subscribers may access all Thomson Reuters (Scientific) CPI indexing. This includes access to both Polymer and Chemical Indexing.

Extension Abstract

Please contact your local Thomson Reuters (Scientific) office for details of access conditions

Derwent Electrical Patents Index (Derwent EPI) segment

Manual Codes Sections S-X may be accessed by anyone

Derwent World Patents Index with API Indexing

Access for Thomson Reuters (Scientific) non-subscribers and API non-subscribers is limited to 1.5 hours per year. SDI's are not available with non-subscriber access. Subscriber access to these databases is possible only following written authorisation from Thomson Reuters (Scientific).
